Beach Cities Symphony Slates Dramatic Program Friday Night

The Beach Cities Symphony orchestra, Louis Palange conducting, will present its most dramatic program of the concert season, tomorrow, in the Redondo Union High School auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Palange and his 83-man ensemble will present music by Beethoven, Wagner and Moussorgsky.

SANDRA McLARTY... Concert Soloist

Soloist Named
Solosit for the evening will be Miss Sandra McLarty, pianist, and 18-year-old music major at the University of Southern California.

The featured selection will be Modeste Moussorgsky's fantasy, "Night on Bald Mountain," a musical portrayal of Medgen's drama "The Witch." The orchestra will also play the "Prelude to Lohengrin" and the "Siegfried Idyl" by Richard Wagner.

The concert series is presented by the Beach Cities Symphony Assn., Dr. George C. Andersen, president. It is the aim of the association to supply developmental stimulus to all phases of local music, and to maintain the highest standards of performance in its offerings to the public.

Officers Told
The association board of directors includes Mrs. Helen Hart Whitaker, chairman; Marvin H. Selver Jr., first vice chairman; Frank E. Sasine, second vice chairman; Leland M. Cave, treasurer; William Malory, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Crumley, corresponding secretary; Marya Cressley Wright, Leslie Brigham, Clifford A. Webster, Rodney M. Morris, and Walter Anderson.

Dolinsky to Discuss Work For Writers

Mike Dolinsky, Los Angeles writer for television, motion pictures and radio, will be guest speaker at the February meeting of Southwest Manuscripters at 8 p.m., Friday, at Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

From Old Myth
The orchestra will play the Overture to Beethoven's "Creatures of Prometheus," drawn

Dolinsky's talk will feature writing for films and television. His credits include manuscripts for television's "Science Fiction Theater," "Matinee Theater," "Dr. Hudson's Secret Journal" and "Hallmark Hall of Fame."

Art Group to Discuss Show At Meeting

McMaster Park, 3624 W. 174th St., Torrance, will be the meeting place for the Torrance Art Group tomorrow at 8 p.m. A short business meeting will precede a showing of films on art.

He is currently completing a Paramount film, and is author of "Hotrod Rumble," both a motion picture and paperback book. He has also written 20 scripts for radio's "The Whistler" and several for the "Escape" series.

Discussion of members' artwork and coffee, will complete a session to which all persons interested in art are invited to attend.

Catherine Fitz Bolton, program chairman, will present Dolinsky.

Mexico Tour Reservations Is March 18

In the planning stage for the Art Group, is the annual member spring show, reported the exhibition chairman, Dr. Arthur Schneider. "Artists in the Torrance-South Bay area are invited to participate, and can obtain membership information by calling the group president, Mrs. Roy Seidler." Further details on the exhibition will be announced at a later date.

Southwest Manuscripters is open to both beginning and established writers, according to Ray Banks, president. Florence Hanche, secretary, can supply further information.

Exhibition committee members are Bette Seidler, Lillian Baker, Joyce Fairchild, Mary White, Bob Neathery, Mark White.

March 18 is the deadline set by the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce for reservations for the "Friendship" Tour to Mexico April 18-19 to April 26-27.

Any group in the area that would like to have a conducted tour of the coming exhibition can call the Torrance Recreation Department to make reservations.

The nine-day tour will feature receptions from civic leaders, in addition to a full itinerary of tours, meals and excursions. Points of interest include Mexico City, Acapulco, Taxco, Cuernavaca, Chapultepec Park, Xochimilco, University City, the Pyramids, Palace of Fine Arts, and others.
